On April 30, President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev had a telephone conversation with the President of the Kyrgyz Republic Sadyr Zhaparov.

The current issues of regional interaction and bilateral agenda were considered during the conversation.

The leaders of the two countries discussed the ways to resolve the situation on Kyrgyzstan - Tajikistan border as soon as possible. The agreements reached between the Kyrgyz and Tajik sides aimed at normalizing the situation and preventing its further aggravation were noted with satisfaction.

It was emphasized that all emerging controversial issues should be resolved based on dialogue in the spirit of centuries-old friendship, good-neighborliness, trust and partnership.

The heads of state dwelt on the issues of practical implementation of joint decisions and agreements adopted following the summit in Tashkent in March this year.

The importance of continuing intensive exchanges and building up interaction to unconditionally fulfill the obligations assumed and promote priority projects was emphasized.
